EDWARDSVILL, ILL., May 24, 2003 . . . The longest, continuously operating labor-management committee in the State of Illinois – the Labor-Management Committee of the Leadership Council Southwestern Illinois – has added David Kern as a new member.

As the assistant director of industrial relations for the Brass and Winchester Divisions of Olin Corporation, Kern administers the six labor agreements active at the East Alton location and also services the outlying brass locations in the United States. He has been in the field of labor relations since 1989 and has a bachelors degree in management from Indiana University. Kern is also a member of Industrial Relations Research Association (IRRA) and the serves on the board of directors of the Boy's and Girl's Club of Alton. He lives in Edwardsville, Ill.

The Labor-Management Committee was formed in 1983 by the Leadership Council Southwestern Illinois and exists to serve employers and unions in Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois.
